

Ben E. Connor

Attorney & Counselor at Law

Prior to establishing The Connor Law firm in 1994, Ben spent 21 years as an executive with such notable companies as Tiffany & Company, Xerox and Merrill Lynch. Ben focuses his efforts on Living Trusts, IRA Inheritance Trusts, Wills, Probate and Business Formations such as LLC's. Ben's vast and varied experiences have equipped him especially well to view, anticipate and counsel his client's on their opportunities and challenges. Ensuring firm continuity, his son Dane, and daughter-in-law Jana, have graduated from law school and joined the firm. Ben is licensed to practice law in Arizona and Utah.

Ben is a member of WealthCounsel - a nationwide collaboration of trust and estate planning attorneys dedicated to client service and continuing education. He is a founding member of WealthCounsel Advisor's Forum - an interdisciplinary group of advisors who work together to develop processes and procedures to serve estate and business planning clients.

Ben is only the second attorney in Arizona, the seventh in the U.S., to receive the coveted designation of "Elite Advisor" in retirement planning by Ed Slott & Company, the nation's leader in IRA planning. Ben's focus is in the design and drafting of the stand alone IRA Inheritance Trust. Ben does not get involved in the financial investment aspects of the IRA.

Ben received his Bachelor's Degree and completed graduate work from Brigham Young University and was inducted into Kappa Tau Alpha, a National Scholastic Honor Society. He received his Juris Doctor Degree from California Western School of Law.

Estate Planning is not about dying - it is about living!

It is not just about law - it is also about experience & common sense.

It's not what you own,
it's what you value.

*"My clients become my good friends.
We experience life together."*

- Ben Connor

TESTIMONIALS:

"Ben explained everything to us and let us make the choice of what to do. He was a pleasure to work with and great about returning calls. I feel like I have the Trust I need... as well as a trusted advisor who will continue to keep my wife and me up to date." -J.S.

"I have referred many of my clients to Ben for estate planning work. In every case, I have found him to be very professional yet able to take a complex subject and make it simple to understand. My clients have thanked me many times for referring them to Ben. Thanks for what you do Ben!" -S.P.

"I have worked with Ben E. Connor since 2001. He has taken care of several personal and family related legal projects for me during this time. I have always found Mr. Connor to be knowledgeable, professional and thorough. His work also reflects a human touch that makes doing business with Mr. Connor a pleasant task." -J.K.
