

Crisis Is Opportunity

Success in Times of Change

Built for those that are serious about their success.

There is no doubt we are living through changing and challenging times, it is also a truism that in the mist of every crisis there is tremendous opportunity! So what does it take to be highly successful today?

In January, Florida along with eight other NAIFA state associations will partner with Ian Hill, one of North America's leading experts on how to make the most of changing times, to offer this first of its kind program.

NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART

A PROCESS FOR CHANGE THAT REALLY WORKS

This program is built for those that take their profession and their personal development seriously!

We have designed a process that actually creates behavior change through a focused, innovative "21 days to establish a habit" blended learning model, proven to improve performance.

The Program includes:

- 15 week professional development series
- Face to face kick off in your area (FL only)
- 5 live simulcast workshops one every 21 days
- 5 live videochat coaching sessions
- Weekly motivational emails
- 24/7 On demand video and mp3's of all programs
- Online portal for materials and networking

Participants will learn how to:

- Create greater profit
- Create a sustainable irrational passion
- Maximize the utilization of time
- Cultivate new and grow existing clients
- Sustain the highest performance levels
